The PACT Unit held its annual Youth Summit from July 13th – 15th. The kids participated in a crime scene demo, learned about Commercial Motor Vehicles and Traffic Operations, and met Officer Ryder and his partner, K9 Colt (aka Buccée), which included a bite demo. They learned about DWIs, mental health and internet crimes from agents with homeland security. The last day was Field Day! The kids participated in relay races, DWI drunk goggles with pedal carts, door breaches with the SWAT team, traffic stops and an armored vehicle tour. Lunches were provided by All-Pro Dads (Pizza), Chick-Fil-A and In-N-Out Burger! Each kid received gift bags and other surprises including a Snow Cone truck!
