

Residential Alarm Monitoring

The City of Cedar Hill is offering this unique service only to Cedar Hill residents. By following a few very simple steps, you can easily transfer your monitoring service. You will be billed only $25 each month of service with no long-term contract

First, you must obtain a City Alarm Permit at the Cedar Hill Police Department. NEXT:

- If you have any technical questions, please call 972-230-5248 and speak with our technical representative.
- Are you currently under contract with another alarm monitoring service? You may be required by contract to notify your existing service provider of your intent to discontinue their service.
- Check our website (see below), email, or call us, for more information and to locate a licensed alarm technician to attach your alarm system monitoring directly to SWRCC, your City 9-1-1 Center.

WHAT IF

the community you live in could provide an alarm monitoring service that reports directly to your city 9-1-1 center?

This is a service Cedar Hill offers today!

Since 1999, the City of Cedar Hill has operated the Southwest Regional Communications Center (SWRCC) 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, providing 9-1-1 emergency services for residents of Cedar Hill.

NOW the SWRCC is proud to announce an expanded alarm monitoring program. This City of Cedar Hill service is offered as a fee-based service, available to every household in the City.

Imagine how much time could be saved if your residential alarm was attached directly to the 9-1-1 dispatch center. This unique service is offered to residents of Cedar Hill for a fee of $25 per month, with no long term contract.
